As one of classical music's most enchanting performers and personalities, Galya has captivated audiences around the world. A brilliant composer and pianist who has been writing her own music since early childhood, Galya is a unique artist who is firmly grounded in the music of the great composers like Debussy, Bach and Prokofiev, but also is keenly aware of the desires of her modern day listeners.

Galya released four albums of original romantic music for piano solo ("If Only", "Winter Love", "Key of Dreams", "22 Piano Tales"), all have been well received worldwide, got good chart's positions, prestigious nominations and awards.

The empathic relationship with her audience is most evident in her virtuoso performances that she captures in her breathtakingly beautiful music videos. Galya's music has long been evocative of stories, which is why her compositions translate so naturally to music videos.
